If you do not receive an Admission Letter at least 4 days before this date, you may obtain a duplicate letter at the MTA New York City Transit Exam Information Center (as indicated above). A paper copy of the Admission Letter is your ticket for admission to the test.

THE TEST

You will be given a competitive multiple-choice test. A score of at least 70% is required to pass this test. Your score on this test will determine your place on the eligible list.

Veterans' or Disabled Veterans' Credit will be granted only to eligible passing candidates who request that they be applied. Veterans' or Disabled Veterans' Credit should be requested at the time of application, but must be requested before the date the eligible list is established. Claims for Veterans' or Disabled Veterans' Credit cannot be made once the eligible list is established.

The competitive multiple-choice test may include questions that require the use of any of the following abilities:

Written Comprehension – The ability to understand written sentences or paragraphs. Example: Reading and understanding a safety bulletin.

Written Expression – The ability to use English words or sentences in writing so others will understand. Example: Writing an incident report.

Deductive Reasoning – The ability to apply general rules to specific problems to come up with logical answers. It involves deciding if an answer makes sense. Example: Following the rules for operating equipment.

Inductive Reasoning – The ability to combine separate pieces of information, or specific answers to problems to form general rules or conclusions. It includes coming up with a logical explanation for why a series of unrelated events occur together. Example: Determining an unsafe condition based on different issues observed on the track.

Information Ordering – The ability to follow correctly a rule or set of rules to arrange things or actions in a certain order. The rule or sets of rules used must be given. The things or actions to be put in order can include numbers, letters, words, pictures, procedures, sentences, and mathematical or logical operations. Example: Laying out track material in the correct order when installing track.

Memorization – The ability to remember information, such as words, numbers, pictures, and procedures. Example: Remembering instructions given by a supervisor.

Problem Sensitivity – The ability to tell when something is wrong or likely to go wrong. It includes being able to identify the whole problem as well as elements of the problem. Example: Recognizing when a track is not installed correctly.

Visualization – The ability to imagine how something will look after it is moved around or when its parts are moved or rearranged. Example: Determining how an obstruction along the trackway will look when you are standing on the opposite side of it.

Spatial Orientation – The ability to tell where you are in relation to the location of some object or to tell where the object is in relation to you. Example: Determining track configurations based on diagrams.

Mechanical Aptitude – The ability to understand and apply mechanical concepts and principles to solve problems. Example: Choosing the appropriate screwdriver to turn a certain screw head.

Dial/Gauge Reading – The ability to monitor gauges, dials, or other indicators to ensure that a piece of equipment or machine is working correctly. Example: Reading switch inspection gauges.

Perceptual Speed – The ability to quickly and accurately compare similarities and differences among sets of letters, numbers, objects, pictures, or patterns. Example: Navigating the trackway using track marker signs.

TEST ADMINISTRATION GUIDELINES

Warning: You are not permitted to enter the test site with cellular phones, smart watches, beepers, pagers, cameras, portable media players, or other electronic devices. Calculators are not permitted. Electronic devices with an alphabetic keyboard, word processing, or data recording capabilities, such as planners, organizers, etc., are prohibited. If you use any of these devices in the testing site building at any time before, during, or after the practical skills test, you may not receive your test results, your test score may be nullified, and your application fee will not be refunded.

You may not have any other person, including children, present with you while you are being processed for or taking the test, and no one may wait for you inside of the test site while you are taking the practical skills test.

Required Identification: You are required to bring one (1) form of valid (non-expired) signature and photo bearing identification to the test site. The name that was used to apply for the exam must match the first and last name on the photo ID. A list of acceptable identification documents is provided below. If you do not have an acceptable ID, you may be denied testing. Acceptable forms of identification (bring one) are as follows: State issued driver's license, State issued identification card, US Government issued Passport, US Government issued Military Identification Card, US Government issued Alien Registration Card, Employer ID with photo, or Student ID with photo.

Leaving: You must leave the test site once you finish the test. If you leave the test site after being fingerprinted but before finishing the test, you will not be permitted to re-enter. If you disregard this instruction and re-enter the test site, you may not receive your test results, your test score may be nullified, and your application fee will not be refunded.

THE TEST RESULTS

If you pass the competitive multiple-choice test, your name will be placed in final score order on an eligible list and you will be given a list number. You will be notified by mail of your test results. If you meet all requirements and conditions, you will be considered for appointment when your name is reached on the eligible list.
